Step Three

You need to provide contact information as well as company information if the record doesn't exist. Start by providing your full name, title, phone number, and address, including country, city, and zip or postal code.

Next, you need to review and select your opt-in options. There are two. The second box covers promotional materials. You can change either selection anytime by going to My Profile once your setup is complete.

For company information, you need to provide your company's name, address, country, and postal or zip code details. You'll also need to add your company's website.

Next, identify your partner type. You can choose from reseller, global systems integrator, managed service provider (MSP), or cloud. Depending on your selection, you may need to provide additional information.

You also you need to identify the segments you sell into, your primary vertical, your currency, an estimate of your company's annual revenue, the current employee count, and your number of years in business.
